

African Elephant Population Dynamics

Loxodonta africana herds across the Amboseli basin were studied from 2018 to 2023. Population counts show a 12% recovery trend following anti-poaching measures. Key findings: herd sizes increased from 42 to 67 individuals in the northern sector.